EPICUREAN EXPLORATIONS™

The flavours of a particular region or a specific culture create unique connections that are unlike any other. Therefore, we continue to develop and curate special culinary experiences in each of the incredible regions to which we sail.

Unique to our Culinary Arts Kitchen Experiences, our specially curated, Master Chef-led Epicurean Explorer Tours invite you to learn something new as you immerse your palate in the cultural flavours of your destination. These and many more opportunities to taste and savour your destination are available with our Epicurean Explorations.

GO LOCAL TOURS

One of the best ways to find off-the-beaten-path experiences is to think like a local, and Go Local Tours provide connections with local culture through community members themselves. ## ECO-CONNECT TOURS

Engage with local groups and businesses to learn about how they're transforming the world around them, while experiencing the impact of their efforts first-hand. Converse with, learn from and observe the local community as they work to conserve and sustain the surrounding environment on our unique Eco-Connect Tours.

BEHIND THE DESIGN TOURS

Glimpse behind the scenes of some of the most captivating and brilliant designs around the world. Learn from an art historian about the undulating design of the Oodi Central Library and see its beautiful contrast to the strong lines and terraced main hall of the Helsinki Music Centre, or edify yourself with insights into three of Rome's more modern attractions: La Nuvola, MAXXI and Auditorium Parco della Musica. Witness superb architectural feats and more, gaining special insights from knowledgeable guides about the inspiration, reasoning and genius that brought these marvels to life on a Behind the Design Tour.

SERENE SPA & WELLNESS™ TOURS

Enjoy a revitalising shoreside experience with a Serene Spa & Wellness Tour. Centre yourself surrounded by the verdant beauty of the Samford Valley as you engage in a holistic yoga, meditation and chanting session at Zen Space in Australia. Or, experience the organic crops and flavours of Corfu after being guided through mindful meditation and specific yoga poses to help revitalise your being. Restore and rejuvenate your mind, body and soul as you engage the world through our Serene Spa & Wellness Tours.

THE ART OF LUXURY

PERSONALISED ATTENTION, INTUITIVE SERVICE

The day began with breakfast in your suite and a warm cup of coffee as your destination came into stunning view from the comfort of your balcony. Your day ashore was nothing short of magical, and now, after a relaxing massage in the onboard spa followed by a pre-dinner cocktail in your favourite lounge, the laughter of friends punctuates an exquisite meal.

As you recline, drinking in this special moment, you notice the quiet dance of the waitstaff choreographed by the maitre d' for a seamless performance of discreet service attuned to everyone's needs. You're reminded of the smooth transition to and from the ship, the professional room service that morning and the bartender that remembered your favourite drink without having to ask.

Personalised and intuitive service is the premier measure of a genuine luxury experience, and no one does it better than Regent. Luxury is our art — and we ensure your every need and request is attended to — painting the ideal environment for you to enjoy one unforgettable moment after another.

ONBOARD CULINARY EXPERIENCES

FOR EPICUREAN INDULGENCE™

The lighting and layout of the room. The palette of colours and texture of the linens. The shape and design of the dinnerware. Every detail sets the stage as you step into this evening's dining experience. The maitre d' directs the servers, who play their roles to perfection, in step with the rhythm of your requests and the mastery of the chef's preparation. Your sommelier skillfully guides you toward the ideal pairing for your meal. The finale before the curtain closes? Perhaps a soothing coffee or indulgent dessert? As with all the rest, the choice is yours.

Our onboard culinary experiences go well beyond the inclusion of our incredible speciality restaurants: special wine and spirit tastings, deck-top regional barbecues and enriching cooking classes are just a few of the other ingredients that come together to create culinary encounters that are discernibly unrivaled.

NOVEMBER 2024 — MAY 2026

MOSEL BAY, SOUTH AFRICA

SAFARI DREAMS & TREASURES OF ANTIQUITY

Anticipation builds as your safari group rumbles through morning mist in a game reserve along South Africa's 'Wild Coast'. Your mind wanders to a performance by Xhosa musicians the night before, their harmonious voices coaxing the rise of an iridescent moon, a perfect finale to a day spent luxuriating on the white sands of an Eastern Cape Province beach. An excited voice pulls you from your daydream and a hush falls over your jeep compatriots. Like swans floating across a sea of glistening green grass, a pair of giraffes saunter into view. All thoughts of the Big Five subside as the graceful creatures take in the still vehicle and its wide-eyed occupants. You breathe in the moment and watch them slowly lope away, mildly amused and very tall treasures of this magical place.

Humbling, mesmerising, occasionally blood-pumping: Africa's game reserves are lifetime dreams for lovers of wildlife and epic landscapes. Read on for more African adventures, plus staggering encounters with Egypt's colossal treasures, glittering tours of Dubai and Abu Dhabi, previously unvisited ports in Madagascar, and more.

ORIBI GORGE SUSPENSION BRIDGE
DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA

THE MARKET,
THE MOSQUE &
THE GOLDEN MILE
DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA

A bustling, subtropical city and Africa's busiest port, Durban Bay is said to have been sighted by Vasco da Gama on Christmas Day, 1497. He named it Natal as a mark of respect for the Nativity. The name Durban was acquired in the mid-1800s when Port Natal was renamed for Sir Benjamin D'Urban. Today, Durban delights the traveller from its colourful mosaic of ethnic neighbourhoods and memorable excursions to game reserves and the traditional lifestyle of the Zulu people. Explore Old Market Square, the Golden Mile beachfront, the scented Botanic Gardens and Gray Street Mosque, one of the largest in the Southern Hemisphere.

UNSPOILED & MYSTICAL

WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA

Unspoiled Walvis Bay, a natural lagoon and the only deep-sea harbour on the Namibian coast, offers something for everyone, with spectacular bird-watching being a keynote. The shallow and sheltered Walvis Bay Lagoon attracts a range of coastal water birds and enormous flocks of flamingos. With an extended call, you also have plenty of time for exciting day trips into the timeless beauty of the desert region, including a tour of Dune 7 at the outskirts of town. Be amazed as locals use the slopes of some of the world's tallest dunes for sandboarding and skiing.

ALASKA

JULY 2024 — SEPTEMBER 2025

CULTURAL CRAFTSMANSHIP & EPIC SPLENDOUR

Overwhelming. How else to describe the untamed Alaskan wilderness that awaits you? The sharp crack of calving glaciers, the smell of cottonwoods blooming in subarctic springtime and the jaw-dropping visage of saw-toothed, snowcapped peaks soaring over kilometres of raw coastline — lifetime memories, all. The Native Alaska people have long called these awe-inspiring lands home, of course, and have developed cultures that reflect their humbling surroundings. From the Tlingit, Haida and Tsimshian craftsmanship of totems hundreds of years old in Ketchikan to the drumming and traditional stories of Sheet'ka Kwaan Naa Kahidi dancers in Sitka, Alaska will make you appreciate nature's majesty and the unconquerable spirit of humanity.

You'll find opportunities to see, hear and taste Alaskan culture at each of our Alaskan destinations. Naturally, adventure abounds: Dive into "Lone Frontier" wilderness on a hike atop Mendenhall Glacier, trace the footsteps of Klondike Gold Rush prospectors in Skagway's well-preserved historic district, watch for sea lions and orcas while cruising the sheltered waters of Resurrection Bay in Seward, and more.

A GOLDEN STORY

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

Take a journey back in time to Skagway, where six blocks of the small downtown have been designated a National Historic District. The definition of a boomtown, Skagway saw its first permanent structure go up just 10 years before the gold rush. William Moore, a ship's captain, saw a number of miners working claims in the region and thought it might be ripe for development. He was right. In 1897 the gold rush began, and more than 10,000 people passed through town or lived haphazardly in shacks and tents. A few years later, the gold dried up and so did the temporary residents, leaving behind a great small town with a fascinating story for travellers to discover.

ICY BLUE WATERS & FROSTY FIELDS
JUNEAU, ALASKA

Alaska's capital, Juneau is accessible only by sea or air because of the dense forest to the east. Like many other settlements, it came into being after a large deposit of gold was found nearby in the 1880s – more than $150 million worth. Now, one of its greatest draws is its proximity to the astounding Mendenhall Glacier, a nearly 22.5-kilometre-long wonder that is part of the vast Juneau Icefield. You can enjoy it by plane or helicopter, canoe or kayak, on foot or with the help of sled dogs. But, it's not just the frozen water that's spectacular... Mendenhall Lake is a picture-perfect mountain lake, offering up-close access to icebergs and the glacier itself.

HIMEJI CASTLE
FROM KYOTO, JAPAN

ELEGANT CASTLES & SPIRITUAL HAVENS

It shimmers like a painting before you: Himeji Castle, a masterpiece of wood and white-plastered earthen walls, playfully known as White Heron Castle since its completion in 1609. One of Japan's twelve original castles, the formidable complex of over 80 buildings nonetheless looks like it should be behind glass in a museum, especially when cherry blossoms are at their magical best. Himeji is but one of the breathtaking temples, shrines and castles you'll find near Kyoto, Japan's old imperial capital. The finest may be Nijo Castle, the former residence of the shogun, that beckons you to explore its sprawling landscape of palaces, defenses and gardens. Like Himeji, it has been designated a World Heritage site by UNESCO.

You'll find a blend of old meets new throughout Asia's vast range of customs, architectural styles and cuisines. Read on for journeys that overnight in ultramodern Singapore, Shanghai and Hong Kong. Find surfside serenity on the legendary beaches of Phuket, Thailand and Bali, Indonesia. Explore new ports in China, Indonesia and Japan. Or finally experience must-see treasures like Cambodia's enormous Angkor Wat, the Grand Palace of Bangkok or India's beloved Taj Mahal.

A MELTING POT OF CULTURES & CUISINE
SINGAPORE

Small in size but huge on delivering anything you could ever want, Singapore is rich with culture, history and delicious cuisine. If you want to eat your way through the city, make your way to Old Airport Road Food Centre. You can't go wrong at any of the stalls, but the star of the show is the lor mee, a popular Malaysian noodle dish. There's also a growing creative scene in Singapore that's truly extraordinary. Immerse yourself at the National Design Centre before heading to Parkview Museum, which showcases unique contemporary works. If you have shopping on your mind, take a stroll down Orchard Road — flanked on both sides by local and international stores, tiny boutiques, spas and cafés.

WAT PHRA KAEW, THE ROYAL PALACE
BANGKOK, THAILAND

THE CITY THAT DOESN'T SLEEP

BANGKOK, THAILAND

Streetside pad Thai, floating markets where bundles of flowers, fruit and seafood overflow from wooden boats, and enormous golden Buddhas that make you feel positively miniature beside them — that's just a glimpse of what awaits in Thailand's vibrant capital, Bangkok. The former Ayutthaya Kingdom trading centre along the Chao Phraya River is now one of Southeast Asia's most buzzing and youthful capital cities. Tuk-tuks zip by around the clock, and the nightlife is ranked among the world's best. Whether you're marvelling at the reclining Buddha at Wat Pho, admiring the golden spires of the Royal Palace or just watching boat traffic ply the river, there's never a dull moment in Bangkok.

HITACHINAKA, JAPAN

HOKKAIDO YAKITORI
MURORAN, JAPAN

VOLCANO BAY VIEWS

MURORAN, JAPAN

Called the “City of Steel” since the late 19th century, this industrial town on the eastern tip of Hokkaido’s Uchiura Bay — also known as Volcano Bay — boasts 14 kilometres of sheer, picturesque cliffs and a nearby UNESCO Global Geopark. At Chikyu Misaki (Cape Earth), ring the Bell of Happiness as you take in sweeping views beside a shimmering white lighthouse. Ride a ropeway to the summit of Mount Usu, a unique showcase of active volcanism on the Pacific Rim, before delving into local indigenous culture at the National Ainu Museum. Afterwards, try some savory Muroan yakitori (grilled skewers), a speciality flavoured by the city’s generations of steel workers.

TE PAPAIOURU MARAE
ROTORUÁ, NEW ZEALAND

MAORI SPIRIT & VIBRANT CITIES

You'll quickly discover the ways Maori culture and values are woven into the everyday life of people in Aotearoa ('land of the white cloud'). From the rising prominence of te reo Māori (Maori language) to distinctive toi (Maori artwork) to the celebrated All Blacks rugby team's 'Ka Mate' haka (Maori war dance), the spirit of New Zealand's indigenous culture indubitably complements the land's stunning mountain ranges and white-sand bays. In the geothermal wonderland of Rotorua, a close look at the intricate wood carvings of a wharenui (carved meeting house) reveals not only the whakapapa (genealogy) of the local tribe, but heroic Maori stories and legends as well.

Of course, Australia has a vital indigenous culture of its own: The towering red sandstone monolith of Uluru in Australia's mythic 'Red Centre' is sacred to Aboriginal peoples far and wide. Visit sparkling Sydney for Aussie icons like the Opera House and Harbour Bridge, plus famous fauna like koalas, kangaroos and colourful birdlife at Taronga Zoo. Revel in Darwin's tropical splendour, Melbourne's stylish laneways and Auckland's lively culinary scene. Discover the charms of West Australia in new ports Albany, Busselton and Esperance.

CANADA, NEW ENGLAND & BERMUDA

SEPTEMBER 2024 — MARCH 2026

PEGGY'S COVE
FROM HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA

TRANQUIL COVES & CRACKLING AUTUMN COLOURS

There's something soothing about the smooth, granite rocks of picturesque Peggy's Cove. Their rounded edges suggest palm-sized stones you'd skim across a gentle stream; in fact, they are products of a millennia of waves crashing upon this stretch of Nova Scotia coastline. Sturdy houses rest upon the wave-washed boulders in the village beside the lighthouse, lobster traps and small docks conveying the lives of its residents. You come across a monument dedicated to local fishermen carved into a granite outcropping, take a breath of fresh Canadian air, and pause to appreciate the men and women who have long called this cove home.

Delight in the rugged beauty inherent to the coastal forests of Canada and New England — forests that famously crackle with autumn's onslaught of ochre, red and orange. Imagine admiring colourful hillsides from your spacious balcony as you journey to the great colonial city of Boston or French-Canadian favourites Montréal and Québec City, perhaps diving into the colours on a guided tour of Acadia National Park from Bar Harbor. Seeking warmer climates? Opt for Bermuda's enticing pink beaches and the World Heritage-listed town of St. George.

ELEGANCE IN MONTRÉAL
MONTRÉAL, QUÉBEC

Frequently lauded as North America's most European city – a claim citizens of Québec City may consider an absurdité – Montréal bursts with centuries of history, astounding landmarks and French cuisine. Stroll the cobble streets of Old Town, a once-walled area where Montréal was founded in 1642, to the national landmark of Notre-Dame Basilica, a 19th-century Gothic Revival masterpiece. Sample cheeses and maple-flavoured delicacies along lively Saint Laurent Boulevard. Wander the wooded slopes and grassy meadows of famed Parc du Mont-Royal. And no trip to Montréal is complete without trying poutine, a signature French-Canadian dish consisting of fries smothered in cheese curds and gravy. Bon appétit!

CARIBBEAN & PANAMA CANAL

NOVEMBER 2024 — MARCH 2026

PUNTA CANA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

SUNSET STROLLS & AZURE SEAS

A gentle tide laps at your feet as late-afternoon sunlight paints white sand gold. Along an idyllic stretch of Juanillo Beach — sapphire sea to the left, tall palms and verdant jungle to the right — your mind drifts back to a day of simple joys in Punta Cana. Swimming beneath a 60-metre cliff at Hoyo Azul lagoon. Getting an insider's look at cigar-making before sampling a hand-rolled cohiba. Nudging your companion to share another superb sweet at a chocolate museum, then doing the same with premium Dominican Republic rums and local delicacies at a waterfront restaurant. You love to plan intricate outings, but today proved that in the Caribbean, simple pleasures can warm the heart with the power of a golden sunset stroll on the beach.

Blissful escapes are the very essence of sailing in the Caribbean. See for yourself what makes St. John's, Antigua, and Bridgetown, Barbados, so beloved. Transit the Panama Canal to experience Pacific-side locales like Corinto, Nicaragua; Puerto Quetzal, Guatemala; and Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. And find out why our new port of Frederiksted, St. Croix, is known as 'Freedom City' to locals.

CHASING WATERFALLS

POINTE-À-PITRE, GUADELOUPE

Witness the gorgeous cascades of Carbet Waterfalls in Guadeloupe National Park. It is the perfect reward for your hike on a winding path through the forest. Be sure to bring your camera to capture the sight of the towering middle falls as they thunder through the jungle. The falls have long been admired. Indigenous Caribs referred to Guadeloupe as 'Karukera', meaning 'Island of Beautiful Waters'. If you prefer an easier walk to a waterfall, there's La Cascade aux Ecrevisses (Crayfish Falls), where you can bathe under the rushing, crystalline water.

ESCAPE TO JOST VAN DYKE
TORTOLA, BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Cruise over to White Bay on nearby Jost Van Dyke, the ultimate beach paradise for sunbathing and simply relaxing. Along the way, you'll pass several classic Caribbean islands, including St. John in the U.S. Virgin Islands. When you arrive at White Bay, your adventure in paradise begins in earnest, as you'll plunge into the crystal-clear water to get to the sugar-white shore. Spend the day lounging in a hammock strung between two palm trees, sunbathing or swimming. There's a reef at the bay's western edge that's usually teeming with blue tangs, rainbow parrotfish and other marine life. Later, enjoy a cool drink at the Soggy Dollar Bar, where the famous Painkiller cocktail was invented in the 1970s.

MEDITERRANEAN

JULY 2024 — APRIL 2026

STIRRING COASTS & CITIES OF LEGEND

With their sloping coastal terrains studded with pastel-coloured mansions and family homes overlooking azure bays, Mediterranean jewels like Santorini stir our senses the way plates of traditional meze excite our tastebuds. Whitewashed houses nestled into the volcanic cliffsides of Fira make it Santorini's, and maybe the world's, most photographed village. Along Italy's Amalfi Coast, our eyes relish the watercolour tableau of Sorrento while our noses devour the heavenly fragrance of lemon groves. Near Nice, along the Côte d'Azur, the citrus-coloured dwellings of Villefranche-sur-Mer reflect in its gentle bay, entrancing us with a sublime double vision.

You'll encounter a surplus of beauty in every corner of the Mediterranean. Behold Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque landmarks beneath a sea of orange-tiled roofs atop the 13th-century walls and 15th-century towers of Dubrovnik. Cross the Marmara Sea for Istanbul icons Hagia Sophia, the Blue Mosque and Topkapi Palace Museum. Revel in the extraordinary architecture and sun-kissed Iberian vibes of beloved Lisbon and Barcelona. Get your fill of white-sand beaches, waterfront dining and relics of antiquity in the Greek Isles.

HILLSIDE BEAUTY & MEDIEVAL MIGHT

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

Often considered Europe's most beautiful fortified medieval town, Kotor's winding streets, charming squares and stunning scenery make it a joy to explore. Surrounded by massive limestone cliffs, sailing into the Bay of Kotor is an unforgettable experience. Going ashore, you will be greeted by the town's friendly felines on your way to visit the maritime museum, hike to the town's hilltop fortress or frolic in the shimmering Adriatic Sea.

Then observe a delightful folkloric show at a café in the world-renowned Kasbah district while enjoying pastries and mint tea, a symbol of hospitality, friendship and tradition. Travel to the mountaintop location of Cape Spartel for breathtaking views of the rugged coastline and the sapphire waters of the Strait of Gibraltar. Watch the seawater rush into the marvellous Caves of Hercules nearby at high tide, creating a spectacular display.

MEDIEVAL & MODERNISME
MELILLA, SPAIN

One of two autonomous Spanish cities on the Moroccan coast (the other is Ceuta, near Gibraltar), this former fortress stronghold boasts a staggering architectural heritage. Get your bearings at Plaza de España, home to a striking fountain and art deco monument. The preserved Citadel, also known as Melilla la Vieja, consists of four imposing enclosures separated by a moat. A Gaudí apprentice named Enrique Nieto is credited with inspiring the city's collection of buildings in the Modernisme style, a legacy of curved buildings with natural motifs found in the city's Golden Triangle. Reap the benefits of Melilla's location by dining on a fusion of Mediterranean, European and African cuisine.

TEMPLE OF POSEIDON
ATHENS, GREECE

IN THE SHADOW OF THE PARTHENON

ATHENS, GREECE

The list of must-sees in the birthplace of democracy, arts, science and philosophy of Western civilisation begins, of course, with the Acropolis. On a tour of this World Heritage-listed sentinel of Athens, see 5th-century BC landmarks like the Parthenon, Temple of Athena Nike, Propylaea and Temple of Olympian Zeus. Browse priceless artifacts — most notably the stunning Parthenon frieze — excavated on the surrounding limestone hills at the Acropolis Museum. Gaze at the phenomenal Temple of Poseidon on a drive along the Attica peninsula. Visit the fascinating Greek and Roman ruins of ancient Corinth. Back in Athens, savour a traditional Greek lunch in the bustling Plaka neighbourhood.

FOLLOW THE KNIGHTS
VALLETTA, MALTA

Sailing into Valletta, you are transported back to the era of the Knights of St. John, who planned this city as a refuge for those injured during the 16th-century crusades. At every turn you can feel the presence of the order that ruled Malta for 200 years. Valletta's 320 monuments make it one of the most concentrated historic areas in the world and the reason it was deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site. Start with St. John's Co-Cathedral, the Grandmaster's Palace, Fort St. Elmo, the Sacred Infirmary and Upper Barrakka Gardens. Then head to Malta's centrepiece, the 19th-century Mosta Dome.

GLORIOUS ORIGINS & PRISTINE PANORAMAS
EPHESUS, TURKEY

Relive the glory of Turkey's ancient past by visiting Europe's classical metropolis, Ephesus. Once one of the largest cities in all of the Roman Empire, it's known as the site of one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, the Temple of Artemis. Explore the ruins of the 24,000-seat Grand Theatre, where St. Paul once preached, the Temple of Hadrian and the magnificent Celsus Library. Tour one of the region's most revered religious sites, the remains of the house of the Virgin Mary, where she came to live after the death of Christ. Then enjoy a trip to the pastoral Aegean village of Sirince, surrounded by peach orchards, olive groves and vineyards and largely undisturbed by modern development.

ACHILLEION PALACE
CORFU, GREECE

OLD TOWN, NEW EXPERIENCE

CORFU, GREECE

Corfu offers splendid coastal scenery and some excellent secluded beaches — the same that inspired Homer in his famous work, The Odyssey. For a quintessentially Grecian experience, spend time in the beautifully preserved Old Town of Corfu. Walk along some of the most elegant quarters of this Venetian-built town, which competes with Naples, Florence and Venice in terms of beauty, style, character and charm. This UNESCO World Heritage site uniquely blends together palaces, fortresses and austere public buildings via tiny alleyways and small, secluded squares.

JULY 2024 — SEPTEMBER 2025

BURG SQUARE
BRUGES, BELGIUM

ATMOSPHERIC CITYSCAPES & UNTAMED TERRAIN

You walked the remarkably preserved centre of Bruges in a daze. Because it has been hailed as a fairytale Gothic city and designated a World Heritage site by UNESCO, your expectations were high, then joyfully surpassed. Looking down at the orange roofs and medieval streetscape of Bruges from the iconic Belfry Tower, your soul soothed by its 18th-century carillon bells. Gazing upon Michelangelo's Madonna and Child sculpture inside the high-towered Church of Our Lady. Floating beside swans on a boat tour of the city's serene, winding canals. Biting into sweet nirvana outside innumerable chocolate shops. And finally — overwhelmingly! — striding into Burg Square, a stunning compendium of European architectural styles and the heart of Old Bruges.

Bustling courtyards, cobblestoned laneways and atmospheric waterfronts lined with lively cafés and restaurants abound in great Northern European cities like Edinburgh, Copenhagen, Amsterdam, Helsinki and Stockholm. Stirring landscapes beckon our adventurous spirit among the volcanoes and glaciers of Iceland, picturesque fjords of Norway and glorious, green hillsides of Ireland. Among many new ports to visit, Kemi invites you to get a taste of Finland's wild Lapland region.

BULANDSTINDUR, DJUPIVOGUR, ICELAND

HISTORY, MYSTIQUE & NATURAL WONDER

DJUPIVOGUR, ICELAND

Amongst the endless majesty of sheer-sided mountains etched with waterfalls in Iceland's sparsely populated Eastfjords, the small coastal village of Djupivogur offers something magical: Bulandstindur, a pyramid-shaped basalt mountain peaking at 1,068 metres that's widely believed to be a focus of mystical forces. Nestled by the picturesque fjord of Hamarsfjorour, the town was a trading centre as far back as 1589. Visit a historic timber building called Langabuo, constructed in 1790, to admire the sculptures of Djupivogur's own Rikarour Jonsson (1888-1977). Take a boat tour to the island of Papey – named after Irish hermits who sailed to Iceland in the 7th and 8th centuries – to see a colony of Atlantic puffins.

EUROPE'S CULTURAL CENTRE

DUBLIN, IRELAND

Birthplace of Oscar Wilde, James Joyce and George Bernard Shaw, this UNESCO City of Literature has long been a stalwart of European culture. Dublin's complex history is told by medieval castles and cathedrals complemented by elegant, 18th-century houses built during the city's prosperous Georgian era. Cruise the legendary River Liffey for spectacular views of the cast-iron Ha'penny Bridge and neoclassical Custom House. Wander the architectural gems of Trinity College, explore the cultural quarter of Temple Bar, and visit a pair of medieval cathedrals (St. Patrick's and Christ Church) and a bevy of museums before enjoying a perfect pint at one of Dublin's cosy pubs.

QUIRKY ELEGANCE

ANTWERP, BELGIUM

The two most recurring sights in Antwerp are the works of local sculptor Peter Paul Rubens and hands, which adorn everything from the town flag to the local Belgian chocolates. For an explanation of the hands symbol, head to the Brabo Fountain in Grote Markt Square, where you will see the town's local legend depicted in a beautiful sculpture. Absorb Antwerp's old-world grandeur and contemporary cool in cobbled, 16th-century alleyways or on a drive past the Belle-Époque architecture of historic Cogels-Osylei.

NORSE LEGACIES & ICEBERG ALE
NARSAQ, GREENLAND

Erik the Red, the Norse explorer known for discovering and colonising Greenland, was so overwhelmed by this region's lush, emerald-lawned valleys that he christened the country 'Greenland' more than 1,000 years ago. Amidst the fjords, glaciers, islands and winding coastlines that make up South Greenland, Narsaq's tranquil landscape of colourful houses is surrounded by sheep farms and fertile fields. Learn about Norse settlement history at Narsaq Museum, which also displays locally found rocks and minerals for which the region is known. Hike one of the two mountains that rise directly behind Narsaq – Tasiigaq or Qaqqarsuaq – before rewarding yourself with a beer made from ancient iceberg water at a small Greenlandic brewhouse called Gajaq.

SAVOURY STORIES & SPARKLING SEASCAPES

BANTRY, IRELAND

Nestled at the head of Bantry Bay, this busy market town and fishing port epitomises the very best of West Cork. Enjoy a mix of traditional and modern life in a sparkling seascape framed by the hills of Sheep's Head and the Caha Mountains. Learn about the collapse of the Gaelic order in Ireland while exploring the ruins of 16th-century Carriganass Castle on the outskirts of Kealkill village. Walk the Heritage Trail for insight into local history, perhaps popping into Ma Murphy's Bar for a sneaky pint and a bit of 'the craic' before strolling the lush gardens of iconic Bantry House. Dine on Bantry Bay mussels at one of the town's seafood restaurants — they're a source of local pride and shipped throughout Europe.

ROARING MARVELS & SCINTILLATING CITIES

First, you heard it. Then you saw it. Finally, and most vividly, you felt it. Your excursion to World Heritage-listed Iguazú Falls on the border of Argentina and Brazil promised an exhilarating encounter with what UNESCO called a “magnificent liaison between land and water”: Over 270 waterfalls stretching across nearly two-and-a-half kilometres of preserved rainforest. As the thundering falls grew louder, you followed walkways through a tropical forest of palms, pines and jungle flowers, with butterflies fluttering like storybook companions. Upon a catwalk at a clearing, the falls came into view, and you understood what the Guarani people meant by Iguazú (‘great waters’). Later, on a speeding Kodiak, you passed beneath a slew of falls and felt the pure power of this place with an ear-to-ear, and very wet, grin.

The celebrated falls join South American destinations like the Chilean Fjords and Falkland Islands as awe-inspiring marvels. Spicy culture and cuisine deliver unique sizzle and spectacle to Argentina’s Buenos Aires and Brazil’s Rio de Janeiro. For a once-in-a-lifetime adventure, sail into the Amazon along its mythical river.

SOUTH PACIFIC

FEBRUARY 2025 — MARCH 2026

THRIVING MARKETS & AZURE DREAMS

On the island of Tahiti in dreamlike French Polynesia, you made sure to feel the ebony sands of Baie de Papenoo and dazzling white sands of La Plage de Maui between your toes. Admired the many mape (Tahitian chestnut) trees on an exhilarating hike to the secluded Faarumai Waterfalls. Absorbed the verdant tranquility of Paofai Gardens and took in the splendour of Mont Aorai, one of French Polynesia's highest peaks. Amidst so many Tahitian delights, however, you were most enchanted by the smiling faces at Marché de Papeete, the capital city's thriving marketplace. Strolling among stalls of neon-bright produce and flowers, sipping freshly pressed sugarcane juice while browsing handmade shell necklaces and woven goods, you took away more than souvenirs — you carried memories of Papeete's people going about their daily lives, a priceless gift of travelling our fascinating world.

Such gifts are common on these frangipani-scented islands. From the blissful lagoons of Bora Bora to the culturally diverse villages of Fiji, you'll find the breathtaking beauty of the South Pacific is matched by the genuine warmth of its people.

EMERALD PEAKS & CORAL REEFS

BORA BORA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

If asked to imagine an island paradise, the image that comes to mind probably looks a lot like Bora Bora. The scents of vanilla and frangipani welcome you to this incredibly photogenic locale that is beautiful from any vantage point, whether you're lying on a beach, bobbing on a boat or standing atop a hillside overlook. Ascending more than 610 metre high and covered in emerald greenery, Mount Otemanu and Mount Pahia create a dramatic backdrop for Bora Bora's shimmering, turquoise lagoon. Beneath the sea, a coral reef encircles the island and provides a haven for all types of exotic fish and sea turtles.

MADEIRA BOTANICAL GARDEN
FUNCHAL, PORTUGAL

FARAWAY DREAMS & ONBOARD BLISS

You relished the fresh local flavours with a glass of Sercial Madeira wine after a stroll through the lively Mercado dos Lavradores. However, the breathtaking view of and from the Madeira Botanical Gardens stole the show. Terraced swaths of vibrant floral displays inspired an impromptu dance on the terrace in an overflow of delight. It was an unforgettable day of exploring that somehow, after days of cruising the Atlantic, felt different. You'd adapted to the rhythm of the sea. More precisely, you'd adapted to the delightful routines of life aboard an elegant vessel that would forever redefine your expectations for luxury appointments, personal service and speciality restaurants on a cruise ship.

Waking up each morning in your perfect suite, sipping hot coffee on your private balcony, listening to the ocean's symphony while reflecting on the bliss of this genuine, and long overdue, escape. Lunch with new friends who felt more like fellow seafarers, a camaraderie of ocean adventurers. Leisurely afternoons at the spa, fitness area or sports deck and sumptuous nights of gourmet dining, world-class entertainment and dancing. Or, of course, simply luxuriating in private, enjoying in-suite dining and dreaming of destinations like magnificent Madeira.
