

Guidance and Notice

Changes to information contained in the brochure

MSC Cruises will make every effort to fill the requirements set in the brochure. Changes may be unavoidable due to circumstances. The tour price, fees, departure dates, schedules, ports of call, arrival and departure times, special programs, etc. may be changed without notice. Please note that no compensation will be provided for any additional expenses incurred by customers due to such changes.

Reservations

When making a reservation, please clearly the following points and apply through Cruise Planet Co., Ltd.

1. Passenger name, address, telephone number, email address, emergency contact, date of birth 2. Ship name 3. Cruise course name 4. Embarkation and disembarkation date and place 5. Cabin category

Embarkation and disembarkation dates

● Upon boarding, please present a valid passport, your boarding pass and a credit card for onboard payments to check in.

● If you are late for the final check-in, your reservation will be canceled and no refunds will be given.

● On the day of disembarkation, it takes about 2 to 3 hours from arrival at the port to disembark. Please plan your schedule after disembarking with disembarkation time in mind.

< Embarkation and disembarkation in Tokyo >

● Boarding and disembarking are scheduled to take place at Tokyo International Cruise Terminal.

About the rooms

We cannot guarantee that rooms will be adjacent to each other. We will accept requests, but we may not be able to meet your request.

Meals

● Main dining (main dining and buffet restaurant) are included in the tour price. We also offer a variety of other dining options, including specialty restaurants (cover charge required) and light cafe meals. Dinner in the main dining room is served in an open seating format on a first-come, first-served basis. MSC Yacht Club Deluxe Suite guests can dine at their own leisure in the exclusive restaurant. In the morning and afternoon, we have open seating and seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis. *You cannot choose the main dining area for dinner. The start time may also be subject to change. *If you have any allergies, please let us know when you make your reservation or before cancellation fees are incurred. We will notify the shipping company of your allergies before departure. However, we do not provide special meals, so please check with the waiter in charge after boarding.

Smoking

No smoking is allowed on the ship, including guest room balconies. Smoking (including electronic cigarettes) is permitted in the designated outdoor areas. If smoking is found outside the designated smoking areas, a cleaning fee will be charged. Continued smoking in non-smoking areas may result in you being asked to disembark.

Currency exchange

We can exchange Japanese yen for US dollars on board, however please note that we may not be able to accommodate your request due to limits on the amount available. Please note that local currency will not be available on board, so please prepare before boarding.

Port

At each port of call, you can board and disembark freely by simply showing your cruise card. Depending on the port of call, you may be required to submit either a copy or the original of your passport, so please follow the instructions on board, on board the ship for the latest boarding time. Meals will be provided on board while the ship is anchored, so please feel free to enjoy your time on board. Meals in ports (off the ship) are at the guest's own expense. The latest return time for each port is 1 hour before departure. Please check on board the ship for the latest boarding time. The latest return time for each port is 1 hour before departure. Please check

Sightseeing at ports of call

We have optional tours available at an additional cost. More details will be provided at a later date.

Other expenses

In the event of any changes or cancellations, you will be responsible for any expenses you have incurred (such as transportation, accommodation, sightseeing tours, etc.) as well as any cancellation fees and other associated costs.

Boarding restrictions

1) Guests using oxygen cylinders, oxygen concentrators or other medical equipment for respiratory illnesses will not be allowed to board the ship, as it is extremely difficult to ensure an appropriate medical system on board. 2) We will not allow passengers who will reach the 24th week of pregnancy by the end of the cruise to board. In addition, pregnant women who are less than 24 weeks pregnant will need to apply in advance to board.

Schedule changes

The information contained in this brochure is current as of February 28, 2025. Due to unavoidable circumstances, such as local conditions in tourist destinations, including South Korea, and instructions from government agencies, entry into port or disembarkation may not be possible. Depending on the schedule, ports of call and departure time, entry or disembarkation may not be possible. Depending on the weather, the schedule, ports of call, departure points and ports where the ship lands may not be able to land. Please note that for safety reasons, we are unable to accommodate wheelchairs on our tenders or local boats. If you are traveling with an infant, please use a baby carrier or something similar to keep both hands free while on board.

[For foreign passengers]

● Please contact your local embassy or visa application/issuing office in Japan and complete the travel procedures such as obtaining a passport, visa, and re-entry permit with the number of days remaining for your trip.

● If you are unable to obtain a visa for reasons related to you and cancel your travel application during the cancellation fee period, you will be required to pay the applicable cancellation fee.

Customer's right of cancellation

Customers may cancel the Travel Contract at any time by paying the cancellation fee set out in the table below. This course is a travel contract that uses a chartered ship for departing and arriving in Japan, so cancellation fees are different from regular cancellation fees.

The "Tour Contract Cancellation Date" in the table refers to the date on which the customer notifies our company of his/her intention to cancel the contract during each of our business days and business hours.

Cancellation fee (cancellation of travel contract by customer)

125 to 90 days before the trip start date	15% of the tour price
89 to 60 days before the trip start date	30% of the tour price
59 to 31 days before the trip start date	50% of the tour price
30 days to the trip start date	100% of the tour price
Cancellation after the start of the trip or non-participation without notice	100% of the tour price

*Cancellation fees will also apply if you change your room (cabin category) after the travel contract has been concluded.

*Cancellation fee will be charged even if the cancellation is due to reasons beyond our control, such as illness or travel procedures.

■ Travel conditions reference date is February 28, 2025.

About personal information

We will use your personal information (such as name, address, telephone number, and email address) submitted when booking a trip to the extent necessary to contact you and to process your requests for services such as transportation and accommodations.

Travel conditions

Package Travel Contract

This trip is planned and implemented by Cruise Planet Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "our company"), and guests participating on this trip will enter into a package tour contract with our company. The contents and conditions of the travel contract shall be governed by the brochure (including the travel itinerary and course conditions explained on the internet homepage), the travel conditions document provided separately, the final itinerary provided before departure, and our travel agency terms and conditions (section on package tour contracts).

What is included in the travel price

Cruise fare, cabin charges, meals (some drinks are charged separately), onboard entertainment, etc.

Not included in the travel price

Travel formalities, transportation costs to and from home, and between ports, luggage delivery fees, alcohol on board, cover charges at specialty restaurants, soft drinks in bars and cafes, coffee and ice cream, internet, cleaning, telephone charges, personal expenses such as massages, beauty salons, sightseeing (optional tours) and meals at each port of call, etc. Please note that onboard tips, port taxes, and international tourist taxes are separate costs and will need to be paid in addition to the tour fare.

● The amount of additional costs may change without notice. If the price is increased, we will collect the additional fee even after you have paid the full tour fare.

Application conditions

● Those under the age of 18 will need parental consent. Additionally, persons under the age of 15 at the time of the start of the trip may be required to be accompanied by a parent or guardian. In addition, there are cases where minors cannot ride alone or must be accompanied by a guardian due to the laws of each country and cruise ship regulations. The age definition of a minor may also include those aged 19 to 20.

● Infants under 6 months of age and passengers in the middle or final trimester (24 weeks) of pregnancy are not permitted to board. Pregnant passengers must submit a doctor's certificate (in English) at the time of reservation.

● If you have a disability or require special treatment, please let us know when making your reservation and prepare a medical certificate in English. Depending on the content of your request, you may be required to submit documents specified by the shipping company separately. Please note that there are a limited number of wheelchair accessible rooms. Wheelchair users must be accompanied on board during the cruise. If you are bringing an electric wheelchair, you must fill out a form in advance to inform the shipping company regarding whether it can be folded, its size, weight, and the type of battery. There are no rental wheelchairs available on board.

● Please prepare a passport with at least 6 months remaining validity on the final day of your trip, required by shipping company regulations. (A valid passport with an expiration date after March 16, 2026)

Travel application and payment

● Please fill in the required information on our application form and submit it along with the application fee. The application fee will be included as part of the travel fare when you pay it. In addition, the travel contract will be deemed to have been concluded when our company accepts the conclusion of the contract and receives the application fee.

● If you apply by telephone, mail, facsimile or other means of communication, please submit your application form and pay the application fee by the specified deadline.

● Please pay the travel fee by the due date specified by our company.
