Optional excursions launch directly from the ship, where you can kayak with expedition team guides through tranquil fjords, watching for wildlife along forested shores. Or paddle between towering icebergs in Antarctica and in the milky meltwater at the foot of shining glaciers.

In most destinations, if you prefer to simply ride instead of paddle, our Expedition Team can take you on a scenic Zodiac tour. These marvelous boats are great for scenic eye-level cruising in fjords, along rivers and towering glaciers.

During select cruises, we take advantage of the insider knowledge and relationships of our Expedition Team members to gain access to exclusive sites and experiences. It's all part of our Ventures by Seabourn mission to enhance and extend the way you experience destinations.

Kotor, Montenegro

One of the best preserved medieval towns of the Adriatic, Kotor is protected by UNESCO. Between 1420 and 1797, the area was under the rule of the Republic of Venice and the Venetian influence can be seen in its architecture. The Gulf of Kotor is sometimes called the southernmost fjord in Europe, although it is actually a submerged river canyon. The overhanging limestone cliffs of Orjen and Lovcen complete one of the Mediterranean's most beautiful landscapes.

Reykjavík, Iceland

Reykjavík is the world's northernmost capital, and home to over half of Iceland's total population. The city is proud of its virtual lack of air pollution. Both electrical power and home heating are derived from Iceland's highly active thermal hot springs and geothermal activity. The city's large swimming pools are always warm, and in the countryside exotic fruits such as grapes and bananas are cultivated in greenhouses warmed with the help of underground hot springs. Washed by the Gulf Stream, Iceland is a starkly beautiful country crowned with three huge areas of glaciers. Irish monks settled here in the 8th century. Europe's first Parliament, the Althing, was established here in the year 930 and still functions as Iceland's legislative body

SALĀLAH, OMAN

Salalah, Oman

Salalah, Oman's ancient incense capital is an oasis with lush vegetation resulting from seasonal monsoons. The city's roads wind through groves of coconut, papaya and banana trees, and roadside stands sell fresh fruit and coconut water. The tropical atmosphere is a striking contrast to the otherwise arid landscapes of the Arabian Peninsula. Even the Queen of Sheba fell under the spell of the area's treasure far greater than gold, and sent gifts of frankincense to impress Solomon. Today, the beautiful sand beaches, cultural history, archaeology and natural diversity draw visitors to this ancient paradise.

Halong Bay, Vietnam

Just off the coast of Vietnam, a myriad of karstic islands are clustered in this picturesque setting. Looming out of the sea, undercut by erosions into fantastic shapes, they reminded the Vietnamese of the looping back of a swimming dragon. Scattered among them, whole communities of fishing families live most of their lives on sampans, trading among themselves and periodically going into nearby towns such as Haiphong to sell their catch and buy supplies.

CASTLE, KANAZAWA, JAPAN

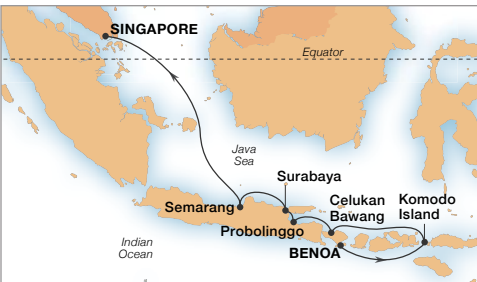

Kanazawa, Japan

One of Japan's best-preserved cities, Kanazawa escaped war damage and natural disasters to reward visitors with a wealth of architecture as an important clan castle town from the mid-17th century until the middle of the 19th. The mighty Kanazawa Castle did not survive intact, but its famous Ishikawa Gate, the Sunjikken Longhouse and lavish Kenrokuen Garden hint at the grandeur. Of special note are the surviving Higashi Geisha District and Samurai District streets. The Temple area holds the Myoryuji Temple with its hidden passages and secret doors giving it the nickname the Ninja Temple. The Oyamajinja Shrine is a later addition, its three-story gate with impressive stained glass windows reveal a Dutch influence.

Most of all, you'll set sail with confidence, knowing that your trip will meet or exceed your expectations, which is the greatest value of all.

You will be advised of the rate of any such charge at the time of making payment. All fares are in U.S. dollars, per guest, double occupancy and include suite accommodations as booked, all onboard meals and entertainment, fine wines and spirits (bar expenses for select vintage wine and spirits are additional).

If you wish to pay for your cruise by credit or debit card, we reserve the right to levy a charge on such payment.

All fares are cruise-only and exclude air and transfers. Seabourn's optional air program offers specially priced first-class, business-class and economy-class air arrangements and transfers as a supplement to the cruise fare. Customized air arrangements and ground transfers may also be requested.

Cruise fares do not include Taxes, Fees, Port Expenses & Fuel Supplement, optional travel protection plan and any incidental expenses including, but not limited to: laundry charges, bar expenses for select vintage wines and spirits, spa and salon treatments, telephone and internet charges, medical services, Ventures by Seabourn[™] excursions, and shore excursions.

Guests have the option of accepting any such cruise fare increases/additional charges or canceling the booking without incurring a cancellation fee. Taxes, Fees, Port Expenses & Fuel Supplement range from $70 to $3,550 per person, per cruise depending on the itinerary, and apply to all guests.

GRATUITIES

and property. The Master of the ship as well as the operator of any other means of transportation may, in his/her sole discretion, take any action deemed necessary for the safety, security, comfort or well-being of any person or to prevent damage to or loss of the ship. In that event, we do not assume responsibility or liability for any resulting losses, expenses or inconvenience. Your full cruise fare will be refunded, if the cruise is cancelled prior to initial embarkation. We are not required to make refunds once travel commences, regardless of the reason for guests being unable to complete their travel.

Non-Seabourn Services (such as airlines and ground carriers, shore excursions, restaurants, air ambulance, hotels and shoreside physicians) are generally performed by independent contractors. These Non-Seabourn Services are solely at your risk and subject to the terms or arrangements made by you or on your behalf with the independent contractor. We assume no responsibility with respect to these Non-Seabourn Services (including cancellation, delay, injury, death or damage to property) even though we may collect monies or make bookings.

In that event, we do not assume responsibility or liability for any resulting losses, expenses or inconvenience. Your full cruise fare will be refunded, however, if the cruise is cancelled prior to initial embarkation. We are not required to make refunds once travel commences, regardless of the reason for guests being unable to complete their travel.

All cruises of 26 days or longer: Seabourn must receive full payment 120 days before sailing: All reservations are subject to cancellation without notice if payments are not received by the due date, and are finalized only when paid in full at 120 days prior to sailing. TAXES, FEES & PORT EXPENSES

"Taxes, Fees & Port Expenses," as used by us, may include any and all fees, charges, tolls and taxes imposed on us by governmental or quasi-governmental authorities, as well as third party fees and charges arising from a vessel's presence in a harbor or port. Taxes, Fees & Port Expenses may include U.S. Customs fees, head taxes, Panama Canal tolls, dockage fees, wharfage fees, inspection fees, pilotage, air taxes, hotel or VAT taxes incurred as part of a land tour, immigration and naturalization fees, and Internal Revenue Service fees, as well as fees paid to third parties for navigation, berthing, stevedoring, baggage handling/storage and security services. CANCELLATION FEES

Given that the resale of cancelled space will likely result in a lost opportunity to sell other space, these fees are due regardless of resale. You hereby agree that losses sustained by us in the event of your cancellation would be very difficult or impossible to quantify, and that the fees set forth in our cancellation policy represent a fair and reasonable assessment as liquidated damages. Fees incurred as a result of cancellation cannot be applied to future bookings. Refunds will normally be made to your travel professional. Travel professionals may impose their own cancellation fees. Agency fees of any nature are a matter to be decided on solely by the agency and guests.

Travel agencies provide valuable service and counseling to prospective travelers. We encourage you to make your Seabourn reservations with a travel professional. You acknowledge that your travel agent acts solely as your agent, and not as agent for Carrier, and is deemed as your agent. Further, receipt by your travel agent of the Cruise Contract or any other communications, notices or information from Carrier shall constitute receipt of such materials by you. Travel agencies are not owned or controlled by Seabourn.

If a cancellation occurs, the following cancellation fees will be assessed:

Cruises of 25 Days or Less:

DAYS PRIOR TO DEPARTURE	CANCELLATION FEE
120-91 days	15% of full fare

The above cancellation fees apply when either the entire booking, or any portion of a booking is cancelled or transferred to an alternative sailing, and shall apply to all travel including cruise, airfare and land arrangements. If only non-cruise components are cancelled, the guest will be responsible for any cancellation fees imposed by the airlines, other transportation carriers, tour and ground operators or hotel properties. Seabourn must receive written cancellation, which may be sent to Seabourn's Reservations Department at Seabourn, 450 Third Avenue West, Seattle, WA 98119 or to seareservations@seabourn.com.

CANCELLATION POLICY EXCEPTION

If you have purchased a specially priced promotion that is 100% non-refundable from the point of payment, you are not entitled to any refund, payment, compensation or credit whatsoever of your gross fare if you cancel your booking.

LIMITATIONS ON CARRIER'S LIABILITY

Under no circumstances shall the Carrier be or become liable for consequential or other damages of any kind sustained by any Guests except as expressly provided in the Cruise Contract.

PERSONAL DATA

In order to process your booking and to ensure that your travel arrangements run smoothly and meet your requirements, Seabourn needs to use the personal and sensitive data you provide such as name, address, any special needs, health, medical, mobility or dietary requirements, etc. In accordance with its privacy policies, Seabourn may share your personal and sensitive data to third parties such as travel agents, airlines, hotels and transport companies, or as required by law. This may involve sending your personal data between different countries, including countries outside the European Union (EU) where controls on data protection may not be as strong as the legal requirements in this country.

NOTICE CONCERNING SAFETY AND SECURITY

Carrier visits a large number of ports in numerous countries around the world. At any given moment there are likely to be "trouble spots" in the world in terms of war, terrorism, crime, Act of God, civil commotions, labor trouble, and/or other potential sources of harm. Local conditions and infrastructure may also create hazards to Guest while off the ship. Accordingly, it may be necessary to change, cancel or terminate the scheduled cruise or any activities related to the cruise, including without limitation shore excursions and port visits. Although Carrier endeavors to provide reasonable protection for your comfort and safety on board its ships, Carrier cannot guarantee freedom from all risks associated with war, terrorism, crime or other potential sources of harm. Carrier reminds all Guests that they must ultimately assume responsibility for their actions while ashore. The United States Department of State and other similar government agencies regularly issue advisories and warnings to travelers giving details of local conditions in specified cities and countries according to such agency's perception of risks to travelers. Although unlikely, the ship may be confronted by actual or threatened war, warlike operations or hostilities. Carrier has the absolute right and sole discretion to respond to safety concerns of any kind, including but not limited to sailing with or without lights, deviating from customary practices or rules and regulations concerning navigation, cargo or other matters in time of peace, or sailing armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

There are risks inherent to being aboard the ship. These include, by way of example, having to evacuate the ship or other means of transportation in case of emergency, having to move about on the ship or other vessels during rough seas and lack of access to full medical services. For people who are ill or who have a mental or physical disability or impairment, these risks are more significant. For example: access to all parts of the ship, other means of transportation or to facilities on shore may be difficult or impossible for some guests. In addition, medical evacuations during the Cruise, whether by sea, by tender, or by deviating from the scheduled itinerary, may create an increased risk of harm and may not be feasible for a variety of reasons. We reserve the right to determine, in our sole discretion exercised in good faith, whether and when a medical evacuation from the ship will occur.

OPTIONAL TRAVEL PROTECTION

We strongly recommend that all guests purchase some form of Trip Cancellation/Interruption Protection to help protect your vacation investment. For your convenience, we offer SeabournShield®, a program that has been specially designed and economically priced exclusively for our guests. See page 122 for details.

REFUNDS

Partial use of cruise, airfare, hotel and land extensions does not qualify a guest for a refund. All refund requests pertaining to cruise, land and air are subject to final review by Seabourn.

EXTENDED HOTEL STAYS

Fares are per person double occupancy and include daily breakfast, private car transfers, a hospitality representative, portage and bell service gratuities throughout, and all taxes. Seabourn reserves the right to substitute hotels of similar quality. Not all hotels can accommodate triples and quads, and when available may consist of two double beds which may not be suitable for three adults. If you require separate beds, we suggest that you pre-purchase an additional room before the start of your cruise. Special requests such as smoking, king or double beds, etc., are at the discretion of the hotel and cannot be guaranteed. Guests are responsible for incidentals and meals unless noted otherwise. Guests whose Seabourn air arrangements require a hotel "forced overnight" may be accommodated in a property of a different standard than typically used for Seabourn luxury hotel packages

BAGGAGE/ VALUABLES/PROHIBITED ITEMS

Each fully paid adult guest will be allowed a reasonable amount of luggage on board containing their personal belongings. Please remember to check with your airline on their baggage restrictions and limitations. Guests are solely responsible for any baggage fees charged by the airline(s) at time of check-in. Seabourn's responsibility for lost, damaged or misplaced baggage and other personal property is limited by the Cruise Contract. Seabourn is not responsible for camera equipment, jewelry, cash, medications, medical devices, dental appliances, or other similarly fragile and valuable items contained in checked or unchecked baggage, left in the suite or in public areas onboard. These items should be personally carried by guests and placed in the suite safe once onboard. Please review the Cruise Contract terms and conditions for additional information. For your safety, all baggage must pass a security checkpoint.

You may not take on board firearms, controlled or prohibited substances, inflammable or hazardous items, and other items prohibited by applicable law, or any other items prohibited by applicable law, or any other item

Carrier deems in its sole discretion to be detrimental to the safety, security, comfort or well-being of any person.

CHILDREN TRAVELING WITH AN ADULT

Please note that some countries have special requirements for minors (under age 18) who are not traveling with both parents. Children under 18 years of age must be accompanied by an adult and if that adult is not a parent or legal guardian, written permission from the parent or legal guardian is required. Please discuss this with your travel professional.

MEDICAL SERVICES

Each of our ships is equipped with limited medical facilities that are staffed by a physician and registered nurses. The physician is an independent contractor. There will be a fee charged for all medical services and medications obtained on board. If you become ill during the cruise and the physician is unable to care for your needs on board, you will be transferred to medical facilities on shore. If your condition will require that you have special medical apparatus or assistance on board, we must be made aware of that at time of booking in order to determine whether we can accommodate your needs. If you are using prescription drugs, please bring an adequate supply with you and keep them in your carry-on luggage

MINORS AS GUESTS/PREGNANCY POLICY

Guests under 21 years of age must be accompanied by a parent, guardian or chaperone who is at least 21 years old; one adult chaperone is required for every five people under age 21. We will not accept reservations for infants 6 months or younger for non-transocean sailings, 12 months or younger for transocean sailings at the time the cruise commences. Seabourn cannot accept a booking or carry any guest who will be 24 completed weeks or more pregnant on the last day of the intended cruise. All pregnant women are required to produce a physician's letter stating that mother and baby are in good health, fit to travel, and that the pregnancy is not high-risk.

ALCOHOL, GAMBLING, SMOKING

We are committed to the responsible service of alcohol. There may be times when we consider it appropriate to refuse the service of alcohol to a guest for any reason. Guests must be 21 years or over to purchase or consume alcohol on board. For voyages that depart from and return to Australia, New Zealand, Europe, China, Hong Kong, Singapore or Taiwan, this policy applies to guests 18 years and older. For voyages which depart from and return to Japan, this policy applies to guests 20 years and older. Any alcohol purchased ashore will be collected at the gangway for safe keeping and will be returned to you on the last day of your cruise.

No Guest under the age of 18 shall be permitted to engage in any gaming activities on board any ship or to purchase cigarettes or tobacco products.

For the comfort of all of our guests all staterooms including stateroom verandas, showrooms and most other indoor areas are designated non-smoking.

EMBARKATION/DISEMBARKATION

The ship generally will be available for embarkation two hours before the scheduled sailing time noted on the itinerary sent with the final documents. You are responsible for arriving at the respective port on time for embarkation and for joining the vessel at its next port of call if, for any reason, you miss a scheduled sailing. Seabourn reserves the right to refuse or discontinue passage to anyone when, in Seabourn's judgment, it would be considered a risk to the guest's own safety and well-being or the health, safety, well-being, comfort and enjoyment of any other guest or crew member. On disembarkation day, suites must be vacated two hours after the scheduled arrival time, unless otherwise approved by the Hotel Director. Guests making their own air arrangements should allow 3 to 4 hours for transfer time to the airport once customs and immigration clearance has been completed.

GUESTS WITH DISABILITIES

We do not discriminate against persons on the basis of disability. We seek, to the extent feasible, to accommodate the needs of persons with disabilities. Guests with disabilities are welcome aboard Seabourn ships. Guests who have medical, physical or other special requirements must advise Seabourn's Reservation Department at time of reservation. Upon notification by a guest with a disability, Seabourn Reservations can assist in providing any relevant information pertaining to accessibility onboard the vessels. We have a limited number of suites designated for wheelchair access. Due to the configuration of our ships, individuals using a wheelchair and individuals with vision loss may experience some difficulties in accessing certain areas. For safety reasons, guests in wheelchairs cannot be carried up staircases or gangways, nor on launches when the ship is at anchor. Seabourn is pleased to permit individuals to bring qualified service animals on board. Notice that a guest will be traveling with an animal must be provided at the time of booking. Local laws or customs may prevent animals from disembarking at particular ports and countries. It is the guest's obligation to obtain all documents/health certificates that may be required. Consult local customs authorities for information and requirements.

In limited situations where an individual with a disability would be unable to satisfy certain specified safety and other criteria, even when provided with appropriate auxiliary aids and services, we may find it necessary to ask the individual to make alternative travel arrangements.

Guests with conditions requiring ongoing medical assistance may be asked to have their physician provide a confidential certification form to ensure that they may travel safely. For further information regarding accessibility of our ships and ports of call please contact our Reservation Department at 800.929.9391 or 206.626.9191.

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL DOCUMENTS & HEALTH INFORMATION

All guests must carry their valid passport. We strongly recommend carrying a passport that is valid for at least six months beyond the completion date of your travel, as this is required by some countries. In addition, certain countries may require entry visas. You are responsible for securing proper documentation for the countries visited on your cruise and overland tour destinations.

Boarding may be denied or fines may be levied against those guests without proper documentation. Payment of any fines levied is the responsibility of the individual guest. Consult your travel advisor for advice on such requirements. Visa requirements vary by destination country and are subject to change by governments without notice. During a voyage, circumstances may require that Seabourn obtain a group entry visa for all guests, the cost of which will be charged to the guests' onboard account. You will be provided with preliminary cruise documents approximately three months prior to departure. These will contain instructions for viewing visa information from an independent visa service online, should you wish to avail yourself of this service.

Vaccination/immunization requirements vary considerably depending on the area of the world visited, and are subject to change at any time. We strongly recommend that all guests contact their personal physician, the Department of Public Health or the Centers for Disease Control for specific recommendations and/or requirements.
